NEWS & CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Get alerted about emergencies and other important community news from the Town by signing up for the Redding Alert system. This system enables us to quickly provide you with information in a variety of situations, such as severe weather, power outages, unexpected road closures and town events. You will receive time-sensitive messages via email and/or cell phone.
To sign up, please CLICK HERE or go to www.reddingct.gov scroll to the bottom of the home page and choose Emergency Notification.

Poverty Hollow Road One-Way Alternating Traffic

Poverty Hollow Road has alternating one way traffic at the Poverty Hollow Bridge, south of Meeker Hill. Stop signs are in place. Leave extra time if you must drive this route and be prepared for delays.

The heavy rain on Tuesday 7/21/26 undermined a small section of the northbound lane, south of the bridge. The bridge is not damaged.

More information will be provided when available.

🌱 Composting Options – NEW for the 2026–2027 Permit Year!

Redding residents now have two convenient ways to recycle food scraps and help reduce waste:

♻️ Redding Transfer Station - Food scraps may be composted at the Redding Transfer Station for $0.10 per pound.

🗄️ MetroStor Food Scrap Drop Box - FREE for all current 2026–2027 Transfer Station permit holders!

Located at 10 Lonetown Road, the MetroStor Food Scrap Drop Box provides a convenient, 24/7 option for food scrap recycling. Access is managed through the free MetroKEY app.

Residents with a valid 2026–2027 Transfer Station permit may use the drop box at no additional charge. Simply download the MetroKEY app or scan the QR code below to get started.

🌎 Turn your food scraps into a resource instead of trash! Every pound diverted from the waste stream helps reduce disposal costs and supports a more sustainable community.

For questions, please contact the Transfer Station Coordinator in person at the Transfer Station, call 203-938-3026, or visit the HRRA website.

Start composting today—it's easy, convenient, and free with your permit! 🌱♻️ Scan QR code to sign up!
